“ When Nathan and his family first moved to our neighborhood my son also named Nathan delivered some baked goods to their door. Nathan came to the door and we soon found out that "the Nathans" had similar initials...NAS..both had birthdays in April, although a year apart. Norah referred to my son as "the other Nathan" and that is how the neighborhood knew which one was which...those two had alot of fun together and of course some mischief 😊

“ I remember you sat with us every morning before class. I remember when you came to school with your hair dyed blonde, we were matching which I thought was cool. You hated the other boys who would continuously ask me out which I really appreciated. I remember going to the movies with you and Natali and when you both drove me home and met my dog. He didn't like you very much lol. You were always so happy whenever I saw you. There's a lot I remember, a lot of good times. I'm going to hold on to the best memories. I'm going to always remember the time we shared even if it was brief this past year. You were such a good person, I just wish I would have told you how special you are the last time I talked to you. There's so much I could say.. We love and miss you so much Nate. We always will.

“ *I remember all the times we got to see you when you used to come to our house or we got to come up there. We always had a good time together. You were a very special one. We were there the night you came into this world. I just couldn't wait to see you. You were our Easter baby. Love you so much.

“ Dear Family,

I am so sorry for your loss, after reading this obituary i wanted to share an encouraging thought with you from the bible. This scripture at (Revelations 21:3,4) tells us of a future promise that god has given us. “With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” So isnt that a nice thought, that one day there wont be anymore death, crying, suffering, or pain. What a time to look forward too. I send my condolences to your family.

“ Ever since the day you were born I knew I loved you more than anything and my whole life would change. I cried as much as you did when I first saw you. I know growing up we always didn't see eye to eye and you were more like me than either of us would like to admit but please know that I loved you more than anything in the world and I hope you're up there with Dad and Pappy watching over all of us. I miss you everyday and even tho I may not have said it as often as I should have, I have always been very proud of you. I love you son. Requiescat in pace my beautiful baby boy.

“ As the fiancé of Nathan's father, I will be forever grateful for the honor of knowing and living with Nathan. We grew close, and he trusted me as a confidant in his life. For that I am so thankful. I will cherish the memories we created as a family. I'll miss him everyday. I can't help but fill my heart with love for such a kind, warm, and witty young man. Thank you for giving me the honor of being a part of your family. I love you, forever and always.

I met Nathan when he was very young. His "maw maw" would have him visit where she and I worked. He was sweet, smart, funny and so cute. Even at that age he left a big impression. Oh my you will be missed.

I worked with Nathans Grandma Jane many years ago and met Nathan when he was young. I remember him coming into the lab and how he always had a little twinkle in his eye and plenty of hugs to go around. He loved his grandma Jane and she loved him with all of her heart. As soon as I saw this picture I remembered those beautiful eyes and that bright inquisitive boy that sat at my desk with me. I am sorry that I did not get to know him as a young man, may he rest in peace. Thoughts and Prayers be with you all, God Bless, Cheryl Kinsey
