“ *Dear John,
You do not know me but you may recognize my name. I am Robin Del Ciello and my husband, Joe, went to school with you. Your sister, Patty, was in his class. I graduated from Finneytown High School with Norma. We now live in Logan Ohio.
Norma and I were good friends. We were in choir and were class officers together. She even gave me weekly guitar lessons! I remember at slumber parties she would amaze us with how she could put her bad leg sround her neck! We lost touch after high school and I regret that. I remember her as smart, determined, and so much fun to be around!. I knew her older sister Jan , but not any of her younger siblings. Her mom may remember me as Robin Ruck. John, you have my deepest sympathy. The girl I knew was a wonderful person and I'm sure she remained a beautiful woman, inside and out.
Sincerely,
Robin Del Ciello*
