“ I grew up 2 doors away from Norma Jeanne. She was 6 years older than me but she was always kind to me. She used to sun bathe in her parents back yard on a chase lounge. When I was very young I would walk past her on my way to the store and she would speak to me. She was beautiful, had long flowing blonde hair, gracious, classy and friendly. After high school she moved away but she came to visit her parents frequently. Her mother was always painting the inside of the house. Her mother had a 1953 Chevy that I made her promise to sell to me. Her father tinkered with electronics in their garage and gave me lots of devices. Norma's family always made me feel welcome. I am sure Norma was given the family gift of graciousness by her parents which I am sure she passed on to her children and grandchildren. I have thought of Norma often and I am sad I never had the opportunity to visit with her and her family after I moved from Summit Station in 1959 and never moved back. While I served in the Navy she would write to me and keep me up to date on the town news. I am sure her family will miss her everyday.
