“ Unfortunately, I missed Carroll's obituary and just learned about his passing today. Carroll always had a funny joke to tell whenever I ate lunch with him or saw him in the hallway. He was a supper friendly guy and never criticized anyone. I started to work in 1978 and had the privilege to know him.

“ Mrs. Dobbins, Bill, Terri and Caroline - Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you and your entire family. It is difficult to lose a Husband, Father, Grandfather and Great Grandfather but I'm sure you all know he is celebrating today with the Lord. He touched the lives of many and his life will continue to resonate through each of you much like ripples that spread out when a pebble is thrown into a quiet body of water. He is at peace.

“ I dearly loved this man. He hired me at McJunkin in 1978 and gave me a better chance in life. I had a small child at the time and only experience I had was waiting tables. Worked there 28 years and my little one is a Doctor now. Mr Dobbins had a smile I never forgot. He was a good man. Condolences also to his wife and son Bill who I also have great respect for
Rest In Peace Mr Dobbins
