

Olive D. Haynes

August 22, 2010

Rev. Dr. Olive D. Haynes (10/2/30-8/22/10), daughter of the John and Mary M. Haynes of Baltimore, MD, and granddaughter of Harry and Mary Olive Haynes of Columbus, OH. Survived by brother, Charles Haynes and niece Sharon (George) Bell. A graduate of North High School, she earned BA and MA degrees in Radio-TV Speech and Production from OSU, an M. Div. from Princeton Seminary, and a D. Min. from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary. Before seminary she worked at the Columbus Public Library; was a writer/producer at the Cy Tandy Ad Agency; and worked 13 years for WOSU-Radio and TV. She pastored churches in St. Marys and Spencerville, OH; Marion, IL; and San Diego, CA; and led healthcare missions to Mexico, Africa, and China. After retiring in 1995 she was Parish Associate for Mission at Indianola Presbyterian Church. An arts-and-crafts person, she showed and sold her creations in California and Ohio. Memorial Service 11:00 a.m. Friday, September 10, 2010 at Indianola Presbyterian Church, 1970 Waldeck, Columbus. In lieu of flowers, donations to Indianola Presbyterian or The Southern Poverty in Montgomery, AL. A full bio posted at www.indianolapres.org. Arrangements by RUTHERFORD-FUNERAL HOME, 2383 North High St., Columbus, OH 43202. Condolences to www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Olive D. Haynes

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Dear Olive , yu are truely missed god has taken yu home i havent seen yu since i was a little kid at church god called mom home in 2005 in july so yu will have company yur all she ever talked about .. our church pic has mom and us kids in it ..

Juanita Wheeler (wagner) - September 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Olive, God has truly blessed you, and especially us when you came into our lives! I will truly miss you, but i know that your dream has come true! God has called up a wonderful women and i know that one day i will meet you again! We love and will miss you! Especially your kindness and your lovely Christmas letters@

Anita Mobley + children - August 31, 2010 at 12:00 AM