“ HOLA MAE!! darlin I'm a a fan!! Girl let me tell youu..omgee. My older sisetr got hooked on your transitions because she was tired of her old damaged relaxed hair..soooooo she did the big chop. I on the other hand am doing the long transition (which is annoying). I haven't done the chop because I don't feel it'll look good on me because I'm so use to blow drying it. Every time I watch your videos I'm convinced to do the big chop but all my friends tell me not to do it because it won't look good on me. So you need to understand my struggle. I only added pain to my tragedy by getting bangs, so darling..my nose looks bigger. I just want to say though, that my sisetr's hair looks fabulous thanks to You Tube videos including yours. But a Puerto-Rican, Dominican diva like me, needs your honest suggestions on what the heck to do with her hair. Thanks =)
