

Patricia A. Rindos

April 9, 1967 - October 11, 2018

God called on his angel having provided us a life of 51 years to celebrate. We reflect with gratefulness on the joy of those years and for every moment we shared with Pattie. The words that best encapsulate those years are beloved mom, daughter, sister, aunt and friend.

Her body and spirit live in three wonderful children - Taylor, Maggie and Robert in the family she started with Rob. Their mom nurtured them and provided lessons in courage and focus that will forever be their guide.

Pattie found her soul mate and life partner in Paul, and his children Paul Russell and Kathryn. Paul and Pattie met six years ago and their love for one another grew stronger each day.

Pattie was a special needs teacher who loved working with children. Pattie's wisdom in teaching all her children was rooted in the strength and character of her parents, Al and Janice. They continue to be a beacon for their children and grandchildren.

Pattie is survived by her brother Al, sisters Joyce and Donna, and Jim. She was aunt to Peter, Daniel, Diana and Julia. We each remember special moments together with Pattie.

The loss for each of us is immeasurable but we have comfort knowing that she is one with the body of God and her spirit will continue to live in our souls. Her family and friends will gather to share memories and her spirit at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Dublin, Ohio between 6 and 8 PM on Monday, October 15 and again at 10 AM on Tuesday, October 16 with an 11 AM service to follow. To send an online condolence, please visit www.rutherforduneralhomes.com.

“ This wonderful family has been in our Life for many many years. They are dear & beloved friends & Al & Janice Are Godparents to 2 of our children. We met Pattie when she was a little girl with an infectious grin & a LOT of Energy! Pattie always went about Life in her Own way! She was a feisty & fearless Girl who retained that sparkling personality to the very end. She had a caring & kind heart always. She held her friends & Family up in any situation.
