

Patricia Ann Barton

June 12, 1933 - January 24, 2019

Patricia Ann Barton (Winer) age 85 of Powell, Ohio finally found peace after a long struggle with chronic pain. Patti passed away on January 24, 2019 at Kobacker House with her husband and grandson, Ryan, by her side.

Proceeded in death by her parents Robert and Frances Winer and brother Bob Winer.

Survived by husband of 63 years John Barton, daughter Kari Barton Parsons (Dave), son Drew Barton (Tawnya), grandchildren Kyle Parsons (Amy), Ryan Parsons, Maggie Barton, and Quinn Barton. Great grandchildren Mackenzie, Madeline and Chase Parsons.

Graduate of Columbus Central High School class of 1951 and attended The Ohio State University.

Patti was a loving and supportive wife, mother and grandmother. She was known by her family as a fantastic cook and competitive game player. Few things pleased her more than shopping and finding that great deal.

Patti was inquisitive, loved people, and would know their life story within fifteen minutes of meeting them. Even on the trip from home to the Kobacker House on the day before she died she asked question after question of the two young men who transported her.

She will be missed dearly and her memory honored by her family and friends.

A graveside service will be held at a later date.
