“ Dear Jane and Jenifer, I was very sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. As I remember her she was always laughing, and never in a bad mood. We were always welcomed into your home to play and always had a great time. The one event I remember the most was. one night when we were all small children. We Cozzens kids had been sent to bed early (as usual) and my sister and I snuck across the hall to my brothers room. There we laid across his bed and peered out the window into your house and looked down into your living room to watch your t.v. I think Gidget was on. Of course there was no sound, but we didn't care it was t.v. Well your mom looked up and saw us and shouted up " You'd better get in bed before your parents find out". She waved good night and then shut the drapes. She never told our mom and dad. Thank God. Your mom had a great many losses in her life and she handled them all well. May she rest in peace now with those she loved who went first. Much love Cathy Cozzens (your old next store neighbor from Park overlook Dr.)

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences on your loss. I worked many years "down the hall" from Pat in Fawcett Center. We were always laughing about something. Pat will sadly be missed. Sincerely, Kay Baker

“ Dear Jennifer, This is not my first choice of sending a sympathy message; however, I don't have your address and will be leaving town for a week beginning Wednesday, so will be unable to attend the viewing and funeral. Please convey my deepest sympathies to the entire family. It is hard to believe that your mother has left us so quickly, especially since some former employees of the OSUAA got together with your mom for dinner several weeks ago. The blessing, I guess, is that she didn't suffer much. It was always a treat being with her, just chatting about anything and everything and getting her take on things with her wonderful sense of humor. Perhaps in several months time you and the family can reflect on the many good years you had together. For now, I hope your sorrow can be eased a bit by knowing it's being shared by many, many others.
