“ She was a wonderful woman. She always had a smile and was always willing to help. I remember her laugh and I can still hear it today! She was like a second mother to me and she will truly be missed. The world has lost a true angel! She loved her boys and grandchildren and would do anything for them!

Pat and Erik, so sorry for your loss,

“ When our son, Jason, and Patrick Fein were in grade school together, Pat was their den mother in Pack 185. She was an inspiration, and as a result we got involved in Scouting, and Jason made it all the way to earning his Eagle Scout. We shared memories of the boys going to grade school together in Dublin the last time that we saw Pat at Rich's funeral.

We'd like to express our condolences to Patrick and Erik and their families at this time and wish them peace and serenity as their parents join each other in eternity.

*Love,
Robert & Margaret Tipple*
