

Patricia L. Taylor

January 13, 1945 - November 6, 2016

Patricia L. Taylor, 71, of Dublin, passed away on Sunday, November 6, 2016 at the Kobacker House. Born in Phoenix, Arizona on January 13, 1945 to the late Jay and Lucille Lindley. Patricia was a 1961 graduate of West High School and a 1965 graduate of the University of Arizona. She married her high school sweetheart in June, 1965 and moved to Dublin in 1978. She loved golf, tennis, playing bridge, doing crossword puzzles and soduko. She also enjoyed planning family trips with her children and grandchildren to Disney World and other Florida locations. She treasured winter trips to Arizona with her husband Jim. Pat was a very social person who was ready to do anything for anyone and had a very large group of friends who supported her throughout her journey. She is survived by her husband, Jim, daughter, Courtney (Mike) Neri, son, Judson (Caren), and five beloved grandchildren, Reid, Nicole, Harrison, Maggie and Annie. A celebration of life will be held at the New Hope Church at 2:00 on Saturday, November 19th, located at 4739 West Powell Road, Powell, Ohio, 43065. A reception immediately following the memorial service will be held at the New Hope Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to either Kobacker House, 800 McConnell Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43215 or Upper Arlington Special Olympics in care of UAHS, 1650 Ridgeview Road, Columbus, Ohio 43221.

“ We have very fond memories of Pat and all the years we knew her when we lived in Dublin. She was a fun tennis player and she and Jim were good friends with whom we enjoyed many social events. We were so sorry to hear of her passing but glad that her suffering and endless treatments are finally over. We'll look forward to seeing her again in the life beyond.
