“ I have so many wonderful memories of Tricia and am so heartbroken to hear of her passing. I first met Tricia when I moved to W. Como around 2006. She was my go-to for advice on plants and animals and was truly the sweetest human. I'll always remember our late-night hangs and lots of Bachelor watching with Amy (who we also lost too soon to cancer.) Love to all of Tricia's family, especially John. Rest in Peace sweet friend. “ Tricia will be missed. She hired us for projects and managed the subcontractors. She was never impatient, but very respectful, asked questions when needed. She treated people with a kind heart. We are sorry for your loss.

“ Tricia was so much more than a total professional. She was also like an ornery little sister who I shared a lot of inside jokes with and exchanged sidelong glances with during company calls . . . we knew what the other was thinking, and it was usually pretty funny.

Caring, competent, supportive, sure . . . these are valid descriptors of her. But she brought wit and humor to our lives as well. I was fortunate to have both a professional working relationship with her, and also an outside friendship.

Blessings my friend.

“ Tricia was one of the kindest and nicest persons I have worked with. Her smile and kindness definitely will be missed by all and I send lots of love to her family.

“ Tricia was one of my first mentors when I started with Arcadis 23 years ago. We spent countless hours working together in the field in those early days and she was always a pleasure to spend time with. She won over the hearts of everyone she encountered - including an old man who lived at one of our jobsites in WV who she graciously went on a "date" with at Captain D's Seafood! She will be greatly missed. Sending love to her family.

“ Prayers and support to the friends and family of Tricia! I worked with her for several years. She was a great problem solver and despite the craziness, we always shared a laugh!

She will be greatly missed!

“ I was fortunate to work with Tricia over the years and she was one of the most calm and relaxed APM's that I've worked with. Her cool and collected personality came thru even when field work went sideways which I always found reassuring. Her voice was so chill, I always thought she could crush it as a podcaster reading stories to help people sleep. She was a great person and will definitely be missed.

“ Tricia and I worked together intermittently these past few years and she was always a joy to work with. I met her once on a job site and got a better sense of who she is, an intelligent, kind, and passionate person.

Although I didn't know her very long or outside of a professional setting, I could tell that she brought a lot of light to this world!
