

Patrick J. Krivda

September 26, 2012

Patrick Joseph Krivda passed away peacefully in sleep on Wednesday, September 26, 2012 with his beloved wife and daughter at his side after a long and very courageous 15-month battle with pancreatic cancer. Pat was a man of deep, unshakeable faith who loved unconditionally, gave of himself generously, and rose to protect a victim. He was an accomplished and inventive cook who greatly enjoyed preparing large Italian dinners to entertain friends and family and for events into which he was sweet-talked by Pam. Pat learned golf as a young man; he played well and loved the game and the camaraderie that came with it. Pat was a long-time member of the Guild Athletic Club. Above all, Pat had a wonderful and wry sense of humor that delighted everyone around him, particularly his wife. Pat is survived by his wife of 35 years, Pamela. Pat and Pam were each other's best friends, greatest champions and the deepest hearts of each other's lives. He is also survived by their remarkable daughter, Shelly (Misty Brady); two granddaughters, Alana Catherine and Taylor Reece; and by his and Pam's dearest friends and extended family, Tony and Ruth Ann Andrietti. Pat and Tony became best friends in 1958 and were "brothers" throughout Pat's life. Pat was preceded in death by his parents, William and Meredith Krivda and his sister, Wilsie Sestito. A Memorial Gathering will be held from 1:00-4:00pm. “ What can I say about my Uncle Pat? There is so much I could say here but won't. Uncle Pat, and Pam, know/knew HOW MUCH Uncle Pat meant to Marty and I. Pat and Pam accepted/accept people for who they were/are. Both were available to help my family, and me, when needed. Pat held a special place in my mother's (his sister) heart. I truly believe Uncle Pat tried to make his world, and everyone in it, a better place. I will miss: his joy of being in the kitchen and his cooking; our talks; his love for life, and people in it; his cigars; enjoying "adult beverages" with him; the solace he had the ability to bring me to; and, HIM! I will remember the good times I shared with Uncle Pat. I salute Uncle Pat for the unending battle he fought for over a year. Uncle Pat you were a hero to me, now and forever!!!! I love you and will miss you immensely. Your loving niece, Beata.

“ Pam, I know what a treasure Pat was to you and you to him from our many conversations in your CWS office (which I miss greatly). I also know of the faith by which you both lived. Thus you know he has left for a better place to get away from the pain of this body and to prepare a feast for you, a place where you two can spend an eternity of joy and praise to the Lord, play par golf and have some of that great wine Christ made in his first ever miracle. I pray solace for you.

“ No amount of words can express this loss. Since I have worked for Pam for 19 years, it was a privilege to know Pat. He was such a special and courageous man. There was no better 'team' as Pam and Pat...or as he was often referred as "Bunny". We will always keep you both in our prayers and I will do my best to help you through these upcoming difficult days. Love you all. Beth and Les Stephenson
