“ Sharon, Alex, and Hilary...I am so sorry for your loss. I am on vacation and unable to attend today or tomorrow. I will be there in spirit and thought. Like many have expressed, Paul is a wonderful guy and a friend to so many. His physical presence will be missed by all of us and yet his spirit lives on in all of us who knew his earthly person. Just remember that now, wherever you are and whatever you are doing you don't need a cell phone to reach him. May God bless all of you and give you the strength to grieve and yet to smile even in your grief...when you think of that great big smile that was Paul's.

“ I met Paul when I was going to be President of Leadership Dublin. Paul and I did Community Service Day together that year. We worked at a home on 161 and we helped this little lady to do all of her lawn work. Plant flowers, trim trees, mulch, and weed. We were required to help her for 3 hours and we weren't done so we skipped out on going back to the rec center and just stayed to finish what this lady needed to have done. I was so impressed with his compassion of others that I asked him to be on my board and he accepted. He was the kindest person and always wanted to help do things for others. He was a great Rotarian, Father, Son, and best friend that anyone could ever ask for. I will miss him so much, only to know that he will always be watching over all of his family and friends.

“ Paul was always a generous, openhearted and loving member of the Dublin Rotary family. I cannot imagine walking into a Friday morning meeting and knowing that Paul isn't there to give a hug and a smile. In the midst of this heartbreak I am certain that all of his cherished friends are surrounding Sharon and the rest of his family with love and support just as he trusted they would do. Prayers to all of his dearly loved family, friends and colleagues.
