“ Paul, you and I grew up as close as brother and sister as anyone can get. Uncle vic and dad were bother my fathers, as well as William and you being my brothers as well as Randy and I being your siblings. I will always remember April. And I will always remember the summers in Glenford learning to drive in that pos bug and riding motorcycles together, to throwing shoes together as we got older.. Please hug Randy for me and keep watch over all of us here missing you every day .. Love you little brother, then, now and always. Rest with the angels until we can be together soon..

“ Paul Brian, I am not even sure how to put into words the impact that you have made on my life. I am so thankful that our paths crossed, I gained an amazing 2nd family and a handful of life long friends that I will forever cherish. We shared years together as well as years apart, you will always hold a special place in my heart. Your smile, your laugh, your personality could turn the worst day into the best day, a rainy day into a brilliant shining sunny day. It's hard to believe that you are gone, hard to understand why a wonderful, caring, loving man could be taken from us. Heaven hit the jackpot when God called you home. Give everyone angel kisses, rest easy Paul Baby!!!

“ Paul Baby I miss you so much, I miss your funny little calls you would make to me. " What's up Jetter Bugs! " I miss all your story`s and how you would never stop moving till finally someone would say Paul take a set and slow down :) you always had a smile on your face and you were always willing to help someone. You were the best and I will always carry you with me in my heart everyday I will never forget the things you taught me and the words you said to me. You were very much loved and you will never be forgotten. I love you with all my heart.... I once read this on a rock someone gave me: " If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane. I would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today, A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay."

Your Loving Sister Jessica
