“ I considered Paul a good friend and though I knew he had health problems he never let on. This picture is the first I had seen where his moustache was grey. We were phone buddies for the OSU football games and shared coaching advice with each other cuz Urban was never available. Paul was passionate in his beliefs, opionated with a passion. There was never a middle of the road with him. I once worked for him driving a van of dry cleaning from his store on the Westside to London, Ohio. He was a very patient boss who worked long, hard hours but Paul never gave up! It's why, I think, that he lived as long as he did. He never gave up or focused on his problems to others (except his family, maybe.) I think he was brought up that way because his sister was also the eternal optimist! Their Mother had a similar spirit and Paul, who physically resembled his father, a gentle, caring, Christian man as well. Paul made friends wherever he went. Too many to count, I'm sure, and he raised the mood the minute he entered any room. The guy was amazing. And his spirit, for me, will always be there.

My deepest sympathy. He had an amazing sister in Charlotte and she is greatly missed. May they both rest in peace. ❤️

“ Jane and I had so much fun for so many years visiting with Paul and Carol. We visited, traveled and played a LOT of games. Paul was very, very competitive. So is Carol. I am glad that I AM NOT LIKE THAT!

Rest in peace, Paul. We will see you soon. In the short meantime warm up the games!
