Her sense of fairness and true love for her family, friends and strangers set the tone for all. Her amazing ability never to lose a debate was equally impressive. In lieu of flowers, friends may make a memorial contribution to St. Brigid of Kildare in Paula's memory or simply do something nice for somebody. "The God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm, and steadfast." 1 Peter 5:10. “ Paula Haydocy

“ We were neighbors, but I'd like to think we were friends because that was always the way we felt, and we were treated like family by Paul and Paula. I have long missed seeing the two of them together, I've missed seeing Paula walking her dog for some time now, and I've missed seeing her walking alone later. She always had time for a chat along the way, the way good neighbors are. But, she was much more--sharp, fun loving, and stout of heart. I know the family will long feel the loss, but we, too, have lost a good soul, and a true friend, and we will be the poorer without her. But, thanks to our Lord, we are richer for having her, and Paul, in our lives. God Bless, Ed and Lynn Scheiderer

“ Paul and Paula welcomed Sue and I to Dublin 31 years ago. We bought their "old house" on Bellaire and were neighbors until we moved down the road a year ago. Great memories of two amazing individuals. After Paul passed, we had more frequent chats with Paula. We would see her working in the yard, (a lot), or walking "Annie" and she always had a kind word. We raised 3 boys next to her and she shared wisdom and love across the yard so many times. She knew about raising kids for sure and we so appreciated her faith, encouragement and love shared frequently. She was a great role model for living life well and fully. She kept in great shape- we were sorry she had to give up golf which she so enjoyed ("can't see the ball Dave!"). Sunday nights were great testimony of her love of family as the cars would come rolling in around dinner -every Sunday- and sure sounded like great time was had by all. Could go on and on, but will close now. Paula was a beautiful person, a most wonderful neighbor, a gift to us from God, loved by so many, and an incredible blessing to Sue, Dave and our boys. Thank you Lord. The goodness of the Haydocy legacy I am sure will go on, and on. Dave and Sue Buchan.
