“ Mary Jo,

Please accept my condolences on your loss. Your Mom sounds like she was a wonderful person and the world is a better place because she was in it. If you are anything like her, then I'm sure that I'm right. Sending you hugs, prayers and warm thoughts!

God bless,

“ *Mary Jo,
Please accept my condolence on the loss of your mom. My dad went to school with your mom. I would go with him when he got his hair cut at your grandfather's barber shop many years ago. That's where I met you and your mom. My dad always thought a lot of your mom. I'm sure they are both in heaven reminiscing of good times spent together.*

“ I am so happy and thankful that I got to spend so many good times with Pauline. She most definitely was like another mom to me and I love her dearly. It still warms my heart to hear how she would laugh or get tickled over something I said or did. My thoughts are with you, Mary Jo.

“ I was one of the lucky ones to call Pauli a friend. I met her through her daughter Mary Jo whom I worked with at Nationwide. I am especially lucky that she reignited my interest in needlepoint and was always interested in whatever project I was working on. She will be greatly missed by those whose lives she touched.

Special sympathy to Mary Jo her daughter. You earned your angel wings (again) by the loving care you provided your Mom that allowed her to stay at home all these years. Pauli was lucky to have you!
