“ Joe Jr., Please accept our condolences on the passing of your mother, Pauline. This morning, while you were celebrating Pauline's funeral mass, I sang with the Resurrection Choir at the funeral mass of Lena Piolata, age 88. I prayed and sang for you and for your mom, Pauline, and for my 88 year old mom, too. "The Lord is our Shepherd," "Be Not Afraid," "Ubi Caritas." Lena's son, Tommy Piolata, is in The Knights of Columbus with me at St. Andrew. Her grandchildren were school mates of my kids. Young Tommy remembered his grandmother's laughter and her beauty, and looked forward to dancing with her again. I am sure you will have many fond memories of Pauline and look forward to your reunion in heaven.

“ Dear Joe and Family, So sorry to hear About Aunt Pauline. I have fond memories of our families being together. And your mother calling at least once a month to see how Sara and the family were getting along. I didn't see her much these past years as we don't get home much. But I always think of her. My prayers will be with you during these tough days. Love to you Your Cousin Cathe Cathe
