“ To Tony, Sister & Lola: Words cannot express how sorry I am to hear about the loss of PeeWee. James Edward "Buster" and I have lots of great memories of growing up on 12th Street at home and PeeWee was one of his best buddies then. We talk about the good times to this day and still smile at pictures and old home movies of PeeWee and Tony in their cowboy outfits. I know losing PeeWee at such a young age might seem hard to bear, but I'm sure you know that your faith will get you through this. Please remember that my thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of your family as the Lord strengthens and comforts you during this difficult time. Toye

“ To Anita George. We are so sorry about the loss of your brother. We both have lost a brother in our lives and I can say "I know your pain". Jack and I have been praying for you and your family members. We pray GODS strength upon you as you face the days ahead. Only HE can help you in this time! WE will continue to pray for you and your loved ones. Juyon and Jack Hehl
