“ To Dave, Cindy, David, and the rest of Peggy's family:

My heart is with you all. Even the part that is broken right now. So many of us share your sadness. I know how much Peggy loved all of you and I hope that brings comfort in the days and years ahead. Peggy knew how much she was loved too. What a gift.

To Peggy:

Thank you for being my mom's best friend. My mom was so lucky to have you to laugh with, celebrate with, and cry with. My best friend is also named Peggy and I told you that everyone needs a Peggy. When I think of my mom, so often I think of you too. I know you are together again, already laughing.

Thank you for being such a good friend to me. Even after losing my mom, dad, and John, I never felt alone because of you and Dave. You gave me advice, you worried about me, you supported me, you included me. I know my mom was somewhere looking down and loving you even more for taking care of me, her daughter.

Thank you for being such a good friend to the rest of my family and loved ones. You loved who my mom and I loved. You wrote beautiful letters to my Aunt Anita, especially when she was sick. You included Jan in our mother/daughter dinners so I had a sidekick with me. You worried when Bill was sick and took care of my mom so she could take care of me. You always asked about Drewy, even when you weren't feeling well.

Thank you for being such a beautiful wife, mom, daughter, grandma, great grandma, sister, aunt, in-law, cousin, niece. Your marriage to Dave has always been such a perfect example of how love should look. Your kids are loving and kind, just like you. The rest of your family is as fun and welcoming as you were. I know how much you loved them all.

Thank you for all the fun memories. Our families, along with the Beidelmans and Dents, grew up together. And, we never stopped laughing. I'll never forget my mom's basketball bouncing burglar, going to OSU to watch the streakers, all the tailgate parties, OSU games....home and away, canoe trips to Mohican, horseback riding, picnics, backyard parties, toilet papering Joan's house on her 30th birthday, you helping me put on my wedding dress, playing charades, mother/daughter dinners, and so many more. I will always cherish those times. I loved the trips you and my mom took with your friends and the trips you and Dave took with my mom and dad. They always had a blast.

Thank you for being there during the hard times. I remember my dad and I sitting in the funeral home parking lot after making arrangements for John. We were stunned and sad. Then, you and Dave pulled up next to us, in the dark, just to be there. I know my mom leaned on you and I remember telling you how grateful I was that she had you. And again, there was so much laughter, even through the tears. I read that loving someone wonderful and being loved in return means your joy is doubled and your sadness is halved. You did that for our family, and for everyone.

Thank you for being our Peggy.

I will love and miss you forever.
