“ Phil did something few of us get the honor and privilege of doing - changing the lives of present and future generations. His work as an adjunct professor for Construction Management at Columbus State started well before I began my career at CSCC. His passion for education, quality, and doing things the "right way" still resonate in our halls, and always will. I grew to enjoy our collaboration and friendship, especially arguing over who would pick up the tab at our annual Rooster's lunch.

Our students, graduates and industry have been blessed to have Phil in their lives. I have as well. To Suzy and his entire family, I know he will be missed, and my thoughts and prayers are with you. I also know he is not gone, just gone on ahead. May God Bless you and Keep you Always.
