Born in Hammond, Indiana to Milton and Ethel Pfeiffer, and a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, Phil enjoyed an illustrious career with Graybar Electric Company. He loved being outdoors, golfing and cheering for the Cincinnati Reds, but his greatest passion was spending time with the love of his life, Mary, and their four children.

Phil is preceded in death by his beloved wife, Mary and devoted son, Michael. He is survived by his daughters, Pamela Melvin, Priscilla Lord, and Jennifer Goehring; sons-in-law Rick Melvin and Fred Lord; daughter-in-law LeeAnn Pfeiffer; grandsons Michael and David Melvin, Matt and Josh Pfeiffer; granddaughter Ashley Van Goehring; and his seven great grandchildren. They fondly remember listening to his captivating stories and will ensure his memory lives on in their retelling.

Phil will have an intimate gravesite ceremony at Dublin Cemetery on Wednesday, February 27th at 10am, arrangements by Rutherford Funeral Home.
