I can't believe I forgot
to go to the gym today.
That's five years in

“ This is a tribute to the most awesome mother that I have ever met. She gave of herself unconditionally. So what was the result? She raised two of the most dynamic kids that I have ever met. Once Jeff needed a haircut, so he installed a shampoo bowl for me! I wish that I knew how to post the awesome pigroast that he had at our home! Diane was fearless when my son fell into hard times. She worked in the court system and led us all the way to freedom. You should see him twelve years later! She saw the good in him, and she learned that from her unbelievable mother. Everytime she would see us when my daughter was young, she would always repeat her husband Deans words. "Pretty Mary". She made me feel special, and that I had done one thing right. Phyliss will be such a loss to this family. Amy is raising a great family, and her sister is about to follow suit. They have adjusted to losing Phyllis"s son at 37 years old. Wow. She will be an angel in heaven!!!! God Bless and keep her family in constant care. They loved her so much. Linda Vitullo
