“ As yall say goodbye to Grandma today I am here in Texas waiting for grandma's great great grandson Joseph to make his grand entrance into this world. I know this is where she would want me to be. I love yall and wish I could be there today for her memorial service but am very greatfull that I was able to come visit while grandma was still with us. She was a remarkable, loving, caring woman. She had an enormous amount of love and compassion. I could never thank her or Grandpa enough for stepping in and raising myself and my sibling when we needed them the most but that's who she was and what she did. She held the family together. I learned a lot from her. I am the woman, mother, wife and soon to be grandmother I am today because of her. Grandpa I know you lost the love of your life, your one and only but know she will always be with us.

“ Grandma i know i haven't seen you in a while. I know you was never proud of me but while you are in heaven looking down, being my guardian angel you will see that i am going to make you proud. You brought me up when i was down and made me happy when i was sad. You was the one true person i looked up to when i was little and wished i was like you. I Hope You are doing good up in heaven and always know i will always love and miss you. You will always be missed but never forgotten.

“ Grandma your are one of the most strongest woman in my life, you have taught me so much how to be a lady, to always love your family to take care of them and to work and to do things I really don't wanna do. One of the things you always say to me is "You brush your teeth today?". Your my ranbow in the sky and in my heart you light it up so much. Life is going to suck without you. You more than a grandma you were a mom to me and all of us kids. There are no words of how much were going to miss you. Thank you for all that you have done. Love you more gottcha grandma
