

R. Scott Elliott

February 26, 2012

R. Scott Elliott, age 53, of Columbus, passed away, Sunday, February 26, 2012. He was preceded in death by his mother Ruth Dona. Scott was born May 1, 1958 in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He is survived by his father, Richard K. Elliott; brother, Mark S. Elliott and his sister, Dana Ledwith. Scott was born with Congenital Cataracts, but in spite of his handicap, he graduated from Worthington High School and The Ohio State University, and worked in the field of Social Services, with many other accomplishments to be proud of. He had good friends, loved sports - all sports, loved to travel, loved a good joke and like to read. Gone to soon, He will be sadly missed by all. A private family service will be held at a later date. For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made in Scott's memory to: Guiding Eyes of the Blind, 611 Granite Springs Road, Yorktown Heights, NY 10598. Arrangements completed by RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High St., Worthington, OH 43085. Condolences for the family may be sent to: www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com.

Tribute Wall

“ R. Scott Elliott

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ I was surprised and saddened to read about Scott's passing. I was a cross country and track teammate of Scott's, a couple of years behind him, when he was an upper classman at Worthington. He might not have been the star of the team, but he had endurance and perseverance which is even more impressive when coming to practice day after day even though not expecting to get major recognition or awards for doing it. It is what cross country is all about. We had a lot of laughs together at some of the crazy things Coach Eisenhart would say. As soon as I saw the obituary, I flashed back to hearing Coach yell "Elliott." He never used first names. The team meetings before practice and the camaraderie of being part of a team for that many hours with Scott and the rest of the guys means he will be remembered long after his passing as long as his teammates are still around. With so few people getting the newspaper these days to see the obituaries and it just running a couple of days, Scott's loved one's should know that you'd be hearing from about 40 other people saying the same things if word of his passing was known. He was a fun teammate to be around.

Matt Leppert - March 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ My Dearest Scotty, Hey who said you could go first? Scared and shocked me to death and I called your Dad to get to heart of the matter. Sure glad this occurred rather freakishly. Well I am truly sorry for the pain I caused you I never meant to hurt you things just got out of hand and I guess i should have been more patient, that was not my forte. But you are with your mom and my dad always thought you were a great Democrat no matter what Mark thought. I played our wedding march Evergreen and i remember our special days together. And Julie wrote to Jenny and always told what was going on with you and Laura and that scene. Too bad she did whatever we all ultimately answer to the Man up above sooner or later. Remember we used to say only the good die young and we will have to live forever. Well your Dad sure was sweet to talk to i still do not believe he said I was too emotionally unstable to be an attorney. Well I am a senior at OSU and 30 hours to graduate and I am going to attend law school so kiss my grits I still think you lied but as usual I will overlook your crap. Remember how you use to say surely one will drowned in ones own crap. Well be careful because I still remember that super mushy Bday card and that was such a load, you admitted that and swiping my bill so I would ruin my credit rating.... So much for marriage and its problems. Julie is still a brat and her kids are beautiful she just won't stop the imbibing and she says at least its legal and all the cool people did it like Scott and his Mom and she even played classical piano and wrote children's books. OK enough I will Always love you and we were stupid but we had many walks and school days and I really did not need honors, I just wanted the piece of paper to prove to my Dad that I was smarter than the average bear. Love Always and I hope you will forgive me for whatever.....Peace be with you and yours.Love Charlotte and Julie.

Char Heffner - February 29, 2012 at 12:00 AM

SC

“ I am so sorry to hear of Scott's passing. I will always cherish the good times with him and Dana playing kickball and flashlight tag in your back yard. He will be missed by all. I will keep your family in my prayers. Love to all.

Sherry Chakides - February 29, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MR

“ My prays and thoughts are with you during this difficult time. Scott will truly be missed.

Martha Robinson - February 29, 2012 at 12:00 AM