“ My family and I send our heartfelt condolences to Lalitha, Archana and Varuna on the sudden and untimely passing of their beloved husband and father Dr. Ramanujam. I have known Rama for many years and it is hard to find a nicer person than him. I last met him three months ago, and he was as cheerful as ever, full of energy and enthusiasm. I find it truly hard to believe that he is not with us any more. I pray for his soul to rest in peace and to give his family the strength to bear this tremendous loss.

“ I have the greatest fortune of having Rama as one of my best friends for the last 38 years from 1978 when he joined for his PhD program in Madurai. We jogged together, we ate (pigged out) together, joked and inspired one another. He was a great friend to all of us, always smiling and helpful to everybody. He will go out of his way to help anybody and everybody. He took extreme care of his health watching what he ate and exercised every day and it very hard for me to believe that he decided to leave all of us this soon. He has left a big void in my life. I will cherish all the great memories and all the pranks we did together and all the jokes we shared. We love you Rama. We will miss you dearly.

I really feel sad and sorry for Rama's family. From what little I know about him (mostly from my conversations in the PTO's pantry room during lunch hours), he was a kind and thorough gentleman with lot of humility in his heart. We all will miss him and his infectious smile very much. May God bless his beautiful soul. SK

“ Hopi Prayer
-author unknown

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am the thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint in the snow.
I am the sunlight on the ripened grain.
I am the autumn's gentle rain.
When you awaken in the morning hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush.
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there,
I did not die.*

Rama was so special! He will live on in my memory as a kind, gently, pleasant, gracious, intelligent man.

“ My sincere condolences to Lalitha, Archana, Varun and Penny. I knew Rama since 1982 after I came to Madurai University, India. He was a kind, generous and a gentleman. I had many opportunities to discuss the work after he joined USPTO. Rama was genuinely optimistic and sincere and had a wonderful outlook on life. I miss him a lot. Rest in Peace Rama.
