“ My heartfelt sympathy to hear of Ramesh's passing. He played bridge last Tuesday, before he died. He never complained, even though he felt badly and always smiled pleasantly if I inquired how he was. Ramesh always had a kind word for everyone and was one of the nicest persons who played bridge at our club. We will miss him very much. In sorrow, Joyce Penn

“ Thirty five years ago I came to Ohio State. So little I knew, luck I had with gentle Ramesh as colleague. Where did all the years go; Ramesh I wish you peace, and my thoughts are with the family.
