“ When first meeting Ray, he seemed rough around the edges, but once you got to know him, you couldn't have asked for a better friend or co-worker. He gave his all to do what was right in life. He also liked being a jokester and loved holidays. He was kind, thoughtful, sincere, dedicated and proud. His pride showed when he spoke of his family. His dedication came through his work. His thoughtfulness came with thinking of others. Such were the days that he'd bring bagels, donuts and have coffee brewing in the BMEU to get our day started. Ray never asked for anything but gave much. We're all going to miss him, but we can smile and sometimes laugh when thinking of him in memories. Blessings, thoughts and prayers to Sue, Doug, Matt and the entire family.

“ Ray was a unique and kind soul. I met him 10 years ago when we moved to Willowick. Ray enjoyed teasing me and trying to get a response out of me. He sometimes did. Ray always waved as I drove by. He was friendly that way. I used to ask Ray why he wore shorts in the winter. His response made me laugh. Ray said, "Because, I'm a manly man". I know he was assured of his salvation. I know presently he is with the Lord. Yet, we will miss seeing and fellowshiping with him. To know Ray was to know a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He will be deeply missed. My deepest condolences to his family. You each are in our prayers.

“ Dear Susan, We are praying for you and family! We just hit it off with you and Ray on that cruise, and were really hoping that we could cruise together again at some time in the future. It was so good to see you two again in Amish country, we just picked up where we left off. Ray was so easy to know and like and we are so very thankful our paths crossed those years ago. We all love our precious Lord and I think that is one reason we connected so quickly! May you feel His presence during this very difficult time and the peace only HE can give! In His precious love Joyce and Dean Britt
