

Raymond Eugene Capots

September 14, 1937 - December 27, 2025

Raymond Eugene Capots, age 88, passed away on December 27, 2025, in Columbus, Ohio.

Raymond lived a life shaped by passion, discipline, and generosity. He loved carpentry, drumming, baseball, Ohio State athletics, and especially the OSU Marching Band--a source of pride and joy throughout his life. A gifted athlete, Ray played baseball, even speaking with a scout from the Cleveland Indians--an achievement he carried with quiet pride.

Those who knew Raymond remember not only his talents, but his warm hospitality, steady character, and lifelong commitment to serving others.

Raymond was born on September 14, 1937, in Youngstown, Ohio, to Louis Raymond Capots and Anne (Patrone) Capots. He attended Boardman Schools, after which he proudly joined the United States Army before beginning his college education.

He earned his Bachelor's degree from Youngstown State University and later completed a Master's degree in Criminology at Xavier University in Cincinnati.

Raymond dedicated his professional life to public service. He began his career at the Mahoning County Courthouse, working as Juvenile Parole Officer, a role he approached with deep compassion and integrity. His commitment and leadership eventually led him to serve as Chairman of the Ohio Parole Board, where he was widely respected for his fairness and dedication to justice.

Prior to his working in the courts, Raymond shared his love of music by teaching drumming at McKelvey's. Teaching, mentoring, and encouraging others--especially young musicians--brought him great fulfillment.

His hobbies and interests were many. Some of which were woodworking, carpentry, drumming and music instruction, Ohio State athletics and the OSU Marching Band, baseball (player, fan, and lifelong student of the game), welcoming others with unmatched hospitality, an avid Frank Sinatra fan, and a Handel's Ice Cream proponent.

Raymond was preceded in death by his parents, Louis Raymond Capots and Anne (Patrone) Capots; his older brother, Louis Capots; and his younger sister, Judy (Capots) Watkins.

He is survived by the love of his life, and wife of 57 years, Carol (Craven) Capots, whom he met at the Mahoning County Courthouse; his nephews, Nick and Becky Watkins, Rick and Susan Watkins, and Danny and Belinda Capots. He is also lovingly remembered by many members of the Craven family, too numerous to name, but all of whom held him dearly in their hearts.

“ Carol, I am so sorry about the passing of Mr. Capots. I first met him in 1983 on the job. He was the best boss ever. You and he embraced me and treated me like family. He gave the best advice and I never made a major decision about my home w/o consulting with him first.
He actually was a renaissance man who certainly will be missed. 🙏

“ The most vivid memory I have of Ray was his deep, and unwavering love for Carol. His number one goal in life was that she was happy and he worked tirelessly to make that happen every chance he could? He would stand quietly in the background and watch her smile, and that filled his big heart!
She was his EVERYTHING!
