“ I have prayed for God to recomfort you all and specially Steve and her close family. Today I will pray for God to embrace Becky in Heaven and to hold all of her friends' hands and fill all of your hearts and souls with Faith and resignation in order to just learn how to live without her, since one never overcomes losing a loved one.
May God be with all,
My deepest sympathy to you, Steve and all of the Signature family.

“ Dear Steve, family and Legendary team:

This is the most sad news we could receive. Becky passed away, after suffering a terrible illness. But she will stay in our hearts and our memories. She was a great woman. Her example will remian for ever. She is the kind of human being who inspires everybody to be more human, more sensible, more grateful. Becky was and will continue to be "A sweet song in the life".

Warmest regards
