“ Nancy, I'm so sorry to heard that Len has passed away. I'm at so thankful for his (and your) kind and encouraging presence in my life! As a child I enjoyed sharing that Len had baptized me and would sometimes mistakenly say that he had "adopted me!" My mom would calmly respond- "that's not right. Try again!" Ha! I was so thankful for Len's willingness to help our family when my brother and later my mom died. He was an oak in the wind. I wish you comfort and please know he is remembered. With love, Beth (Major) James

“ Nancy - The Donnenwirth family shares a long meaningful history at King Ave with the Confars. I personally have a fond memory of Len. He was one of my "elder brother" colleagues that I respected greatly and personally admired. My daughter, Ellen, joins me in wishing you and your family God's comforting blessing at this time of loss. Peace, Dick Donnenwirth

“ Dearest Nancy and family - Blessing and warm hugs to you all in your time of tremendous loss. I adored Len and learned so much from him. The first 2 memories (of many!) that popped into my head were my involvement with a 7-person stewardship team; such a great experience. And I also have a bunch of little 4x6 cards with sermon summaries on them!
Len was a gift to us all. I mourn his passing but will never forget him. Again, blessings and warm hugs...and sweet memories to you all,

“ Nancy and Family~

*My condolences to you and your family with the loss of Dr. Confar. I so enjoyed working with him at Wesley Glen when he served as Chaplain and I was Administrative Assistant to the CEO at the time. He was a delight to work with when preparing for the yearly memorial services at the Glen. Such a kind, uplifting, wonderful gentleman. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

“ When he served King Ave. UMC, he met with my fiancée and me to discuss marriage. I hadn't been in church for a couple years, and my fiancée was Catholic. In the pre-marital counseling he said, 'Never give 100% in the marriage, aim for 60%, as the other may only be able to give 40% on a given day. If you give 100% you will lose who you are.' None of us knew then, in 1981, that I would be called to ministry. I continue to pass on his wisdom when I speak to couples. We were blessed by his message each week, which kept a young couple in church. He also baptized our first child. Thank you Dr. Confar for being such a blessing to Dan and I, our family, and countless others over the decades.

“ Leonard brought me to Maple Grove in 1986. He was kind and helpful. He also told me at Annual Conference a few years ago, that if I wanted to see a former member again I should do it soon. I did. Thanks Len, for all did for all of us. C.Hill

“ My most sincere condolences to the Confar family. "Cousin Sims" was always so nice to me in sharing our family tree information. He is mother, Nellie, and my grandfather, Tom, were siblings. My father, Charles "Sam" Virden, used to always tell me stories of Sims babysitting him when they were little in Los Angeles. He had a wonderful long life, and my best to the whole Confar family.
Love,
Cousin Susan Virden

“ Rev. Confar is fondly remembered by me from my undergrad years at OSU as well as during my years of public school teaching mathematics at Hastings Junior High School. He inspired me in many ways that led me to get MEd at the University Of Virginia (Charlottesville, Va) & math text book editing. Eventually I moved to Boston and attended Boston University School of Theology for a MDIV. That led me under the tutelage of Rev Ralph Shunk to be ordained a Deacon & Elder in the West Ohio Conference. I served in local rural churches and eventually as chaplain at First Community Village. I am now retired and in Court House Manor Assisted Living in my hometown of Washington OH, Ohio. I am most grateful for Rev Dr. Len Confar his impact on my life journey... his loving care, warm smile and genuine interested in students at OSU who worshiped at King Avenue United Methodist Church,
Fondly Rev Jack B Witherspoon West Ohio Coference
