“ Dick was a great guy and always had smile. He played in our Varsity O golf event each year and thoroughly enjoyed the camaraderie of his fellow Buckeyes. We played many rounds together back in the day and he was as gracious then as he was later in life. My condolences to family and friends.

“ Cindy, My sincere sympathy goes out to you on Dick's passing. I'm really sorry I can't make it on Wednesday because I have to work at Safari during the junior clinic at the range. I will always remember how much Dick loved that range as he rarely missed a day out there, often being the only one hitting balls even on bitter cold days in the middle of winter. It just won't be the same without him there tomorrow and every day to follow. I will miss a great friend.

“ Cynthia, We were very saddened to learn of Dick's passing. Sitting up in "D" deck for the buckeyes games will not be the same. He was always there with a smile and loved playing around with my son F.T. May his memory be eternal.
