“ *Richard was my best friend for many years. I'm very saddened to hear he passed. He helped shape my life in many ways. Colleges, camping, voopers, pranks, roommate, and friendship. I miss him. I'm so sorry for your loss! He was a kind and caring man. We put snakes in the girls dorm, took a trip to Key West, drove to Alaska many times. Too many memories to list. My thoughts are with you. I think this was my good friend from Jr. High and High School. The Richard Blagg I knew had size 17EEEE shoes and was a huge gentle giant of a man at West High in Anchorage. Was this the same man?

“ Great guy who had great parties! He even came to my retirement party 25 years after we worked together. He insisted on doing my stress test when I had to get one. I was always after him to get the old Nuc Med people together again. This wasn't what I had planned. Gonna miss Big Rich

“ Through my brother Doug’s friendship grew mine with Big Rich! I remember writing a descriptive paper in HS on the MUGA nuclear medicine test, as Rich allowed me to come observe and interview him for my project. It just so happens my teacher had had this same test done, so my paper was a hit!

I can’t count how many times this wonderful friend and man helped me move or move furniture with “Big Rich’s Truck!” I will search for the photo of his truck packed to the gills to move me back down to Miami my senior year. Truck and free labor! He always offered up both!

I also remember all the wonderful times over at his house for cookouts, cards and fire pits! I broke accidentally his favorite snow globe his mother had given him. I felt horrible, and although disappointed, Rich never got upset with me. Rich’s heart was as big as he was! He has to be one of the most kindest, gentlest, caring, reliable and giving friend I have ever known. The world lost a wonderful man this past week and I am so fortunate that he left a “big” footprint on my life. Will miss him dearly.

“ For over 35 years, Rich was a great friend with whom I shared countless good times and bad. He was always there with kind words, inspiration and a keen perspective. To say he will be sorely missed is a huge understatement. Rest in peace, my friend.

To Bobbie, TR and Lindsey, my best to all of you, as well as Faith and Fred, and Joan who I look forward to meeting.
