“ I first met Rick in the '80s in California. Rick and I had similar careers in lighting and got to discuss our industry on the phone and occasionally in person throughout the years. It was easy to be around Rick and his great smile and zest for life. He was a fantastic person that I am going to miss very much.

“ Amy and the children, Ric and Susie and the family, No words, no matter how tender, can touch what you're feeling inside. No one can soften the sorrow deep down where your heartaches reside. Still we are thinking about you and hoping it helps in some way simply to know that we care about you and share in your sadness today. With Love and Deepest Sympathy Love, Neil and Ann “ Words cannot describe how sad I am about Rick passing. Rick was important to me...a good friend...passionate about Amy, Jordan and Taylor.... and so passionate about Besa. His beautiful smile and hearty welcome whenever we met will always be with me. A big loss to our lighting industry...Rick always knew the best way to make things work. The right way...and many respected his creativity, hard work and dedication. Rick, we will all miss you so much!

“ Our heart and prayers go out to Amy and the children. I worked with Rick as one of our most valued suppliers-he always generated the utmost respect. Further than a business relationship, I was privileged to call Rick a friend; we didn't see each other often, but there was always the warmth and relaxation of friends together. Our deepest sympathies.

“ Rick has been a friend, customer and competitor and has exercised the highest level of integrity in all three roles. I will never forget his laugh, smile and warm personality. His passing is a huge loss for our industry. Amy, if there is anything that we can do, please do not hesitate to contact us. I know for a fact that Rick would be there for me if the tables were turned. Rick will be deeply missed.
