“ George and I want to extend our heartfelt sympathy and support. Having just gone through this with our Dad in August, we know all too well what the Conklin "kids" are feeling right now, and my Mom has a pretty good idea what Ellen is experiencing. Know that we're with you in spirit as you make sense of this experience. --Chris

“ Ellen & Family: It was indeed our pleasure to have Dick represent our company for so many years and I was glad I had an opportunity to visit him earlier this year to catch up on his activities. He was the hardest working and most dedicated sales profession we have ever had represent us in the marketplace. I know all of his accounts enjoyed seeing his smiling face and enthusiasm as we did. We enjoyed Dick and his friendship very much and he has been missed greatly since his retirement and he will always be in our hearts. You and his family was always first and foremost on his priority list and I know that he will be held close by all for now and forever. May he rest in Peace and live up in Heaven as he did here on earth. God bless Andrew Zeigler Waterline Technology Mansfield, OH
