“ Dick Jones was a champ of a guy and a champ of a Father -in-law and will be so sorely missed. He was a real contributor to my life in many ways and I will always be so very appreciative. Dick was a wonderful family man. He was always the one unselfishly behind the cameras chronicling the family activities and history which is why he is missing from a lot of it. He was a humble man, a giving man, a very smart man and a great guy to have long conversations with. He was always a good sport in cleaning my clock in chess and table tennis! Dick Jones was one of the most naturally funny guys I ever met. He was not the type to tell jokes or ham it up but he was genuinely funny and has provided some real belly laughs to tears and some great memories. God bless you Dick and God Bless the entire Jones family.
