

Rico Chapa

September 9, 2012

Rico Chapa, of Columbus, passed away Sunday, September 9, 2012 at home. His name was Rico or "Mr. C." as many knew him but he was Dad to us. As the song goes, he "did it his way!" Early in his life, Dad had businesses of his own. "Unclaimed Freight" was a very successful furniture store where he was often on TV commercials as "George Cash." A showman and the Best Salesman, Dad's famous one-liners were "Sell, sell, sell", "the show must go on" and "What's the latest?" He was a collector of Marilyn Monroe and gangster memorabilia. Always looking the part, he was dressed to the hilt and dined at the finest establishments. He was friends with people of all classes. A true, one-of-a-kind spirit, he will be missed by many. Family loves you, Pops!! Your children: Cita, Katrina, Damien and Jacob; grandchildren: Damien, Ricco, Presley, Anthony, Victoria, Cameron, Blake, Dylan and Vittorio. May you rest in peace alongside your son Rico Allen. A reception of friends and family will be held from 1:00-3:00pm. & 5:00-8:00pm. THURSDAY at the RUTHERFORD FUNERAL AT POWELL, 450 West Olentangy St., Powell, OH 43065 (614)-792-1471. (The funeral home is located on W. Olentangy St./Powell Rd./SR 750 ¼ mile east of Sawmill Parkway.) Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11:00am. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2012 at IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH, 414 East North Broadway, Columbus, OH 43214 with The Reverend Monsignor Anthony Missimi, Celebrant. Burial will follow at Resurrection Cemetery, Lewis Center, Ohio. Please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com to send a condolence to Rico's family.

“ Mr. C! Tell me the latest... Words cannot describe how much I miss you and your phrases. You could always make those around you laugh. My son has lost a grandfather and I have lost a father-in-law and best friend, I love you very much and wish you the best on your continued journey. I know that we will cross paths with one another sometime, somewhere, in the vast reaches of our ever expanding universe and throughout the grand scheme of all eternity. I'll bring the Budweiser. Love, R-R-R-Ronnie!
