“ I knew Bob and Sandy when they went to Metro V in Dublin and enjoyed lunches with them at the Golden Coral and Der Dutchman a few years ago. I just learned of Bob's passing and want to send my condolences to his family, especially to Diana and Mark, whom I have met. Sandy Moran

“ Carol and I were saddened to hear of Bob passing away. I served on church council with Bob and always valued his opinions and counsel. We would love to be with the family to offer our condolences, but we recently traveled to New Jersey to be with our son while he underwent surgery. Having been around a hospital and so many strangers, we felt it best to self-quarantine at home. Sending you all virtual hugs and our deepest condolences. Jim and Carol Jaeger

“ I am saddend to learn that Bob Drake has died. I knew Bob and Sandy during my years as a member of Fellowship Lutheran Church. I considered both of them my friends and highly respected both of them.

Since moving from Dublin, I have kept in touch with Christmas cards. I felt so bad for Bob when I learned that Sandy had died. My favorite memory of them, and for which I will be eternally grateful, was their friendship, support, care and concern for me after the death of my first wife, Judy, in 1993. I paid them several visits and they were very generous with both their time and good counsel as I worked my way through my loss while facing life as a single parent of two school age children. In my mind, their kindness is a legacy that reveals their faith and utmost decency.

May they both now rest in peace and reap the reward of life eternal with God in heaven.

A contribution will be made to Fellowship Lutheran Church in both their memories.
