“ I am listening to a record of Stravinsky's Firebird, what makes this LP special is Stravinsky's autograph is on the cover along with Nov 1966. I bought it yesterday. I could not believe that I was buying a record with his signature on it, so special. I wondered what the story was to the autograph, I knew Strav had been here several times. As I browsed the classical section I found a Van Cliburn record signed to Bob Hightshoe. Wiping a tear from my eye, I smiled, our great music teacher at University school! I promptly called my brother Sterling (U-HI class of 67) in LA, and told him about the find. I just wanted you to know that your fathers treasured autographed albums are now in my house in Bexley, honoring both the artist on the record and the artist that owned the records. I saw him many times with the CSO, a great musician. Peace.

“ Connie Rush sent me your father's obituary. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I was also very sorry to hear of your brother's and Mom's passing years ago. Ron was a sweetheart and I have fond memories of him, your Mom and Dad. I hope you and your family are well and my thoughts are with you during this difficult time.

“ We are so saddened by the passing of Bob. We warmly remember the help he gave to Pat as she worked her way through class registration at OSU. Many wonderful memories of times in the Brass Band of Columbus and of performances at Mt. Vernon Nazarene University of Handel's Messiah. Thanks for your service to our country during World War II. One of the best of the greatest generation.

“ I was an academic adviser who reported to Bob in the late 1970's. He was a wonderful, kind, and gentle soul who cared deeply about music but even more deeply about students. Every now and then I would see him at a concert, and he always greeted me warmly. He will be greatly missed.

“ I remember performing with Bob in the early days of the Columbus Symphony. He was a wonderful colleague at OSU and was always willing to go the "extra distance" to insure our success in the School of Music. He will always be remembered.
