

Robert E. Jones

December 14, 2016

Robert E. Jones, 89, passed away December 14, 2016. He was preceded in death by his wife Virginia in 1996, an infant son, daughter Patti J. White, daughters-in-law Melissa Jones, and Carol Steffens Jones. He is survived by his children, Mike, Andrew, Matthew (Cindy), Lisa Shafer (Jon), Daniel (Rebecca); son-in-law, Mark White; and brother, William (Dorcie); 11 grandchildren, George (MiKeoung), Carl (Monica), Katie (Dave), Kyle, Kelsey (Kevin), Vanessa, Stephen, John, Audrey (Colton), Rachel, Bob; six great-grandchildren, Danny, Ella, Matthew, Ben, Oliver, Jerry; special friend and caregiver, Kandy Cox at Willow Brook Christian Village. Bob was one of eight children growing up outside of Chillicothe, Ohio. He was proud of his Welsh ancestors that immigrated through Philadelphia in the early 1700's, then to Londonderry, Ohio by 1750. Many of them are buried in historic Concord Cemetery in Chillicothe. Bob enlisted in the Army straight out of high school, and served as an Artillery Sgt. during WWII. The GI Bill allowed him to earn his BS in Business from Ohio University. He started his career as a Land Surveyor utilizing skills he developed in the Army, then became Chief Surveyor for Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric, which became part of AEP. Bob had the unusual combination of warmth, creativity, and math skills, and valued being a well-rounded person. Bob could figure out how to fix anything, and was an incredibly patient teacher. There will be a celebration of Bob's life Saturday, December 17, 2016 from 2-4 p.m. at Willow Brook Christian Village, 100 Willow Brook Way, Delaware, OH 43015. There will also be a memorial service at Concord Cemetery near Chillicothe in Spring 2017, details to follow.
