“ Dear Ken and Carol: Sending my sincere sympathy in the deaths of both your mother and father. I saw the obituary in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. I was your father's secretary at the North American Manufacturing Company for many years (1954 on). Remember you children as babies and growing up. Your dad and mom were kindred spirits and really cherished each other. The last time I saw your dad was at Clary Riewaldt's 90th birthday party at the Brecksville Rec Center. We had many memories of the old boiler division to share with our co-workers. We were a family within a family. Then they moved to be closer to you and your families. They were so proud of all of you! Will remember them in my prayers.
