“ Dear Dan, Mary, Tish, Tim, Jean and Families, Michael joins me in extending our deepest sympathy to you during this time of sorrow. Your father was indeed an amazing person. We have vivid and happy memories of him. He exuded a zest for life and a fantastic sense of humor, two qualities that we dearly loved about him. Whenever we would see him, he always greeted us with a warm and understanding smile. Following his wonderful and impressionable life, may you take comfort in knowing he is born again into eternal life. We can only envision his joy in being reunited with your mother and other loved ones who preceded him. All of you will be in our prayers in the coming days and weeks, and though we cannot be there in person, you are ever present in our thoughts.
