“ Where do you begin, Bob was a great yet quiet man. Although he may have been quiet he walked through life sharing and caring for so many people. Bob was extremely proud of his son and daughter and grandchildren as well as all they accomplished so far in life and felt they all had many more things to accomplish coming yet. Bob's love for Jean was endless and everlasting. I am a better person today for having the opportunity to share time with Bob and learn from him. You are all in my prayers, hold onto those special memories they will get you through the difficult moments ahead. My deepest sympathy,
