“ *The Teach Family
I knew Bob for 50 years and always treasured his friendship. He and I always told stories about his Uncle Fred. The nice thing about Bob was his sense of humor. He would laugh at my stupid jokes even if he had heard them several times. We will all miss him.
My he rest in peace.

“ I remember Bob from my childhood, he was a great friend to my brother Dick WENTZEL. He kept him gainfully employed for years at Legg and Davis. I also remember he had a great sense of humor and was a bit of a wild guy at times! My condolences to the family!

Kind regards,
Roy Wentzel
