

Robyn Boyle

July 4, 1986 - December 18, 2016

Robyn Marie Boyle was born on the Fourth of July, 1986, and passed into Heaven on December 18, 2016. She was just 30 years old. She was the beautiful daughter of David and Kay (Martin) Boyle, sister to Lisa (Phillip) Wolfe, and Amanda K. Boyle, and mother to Alexander Jonathan or A.J. as she called him. She also shared a special relationship with Lincoln Wolfe her nephew, and Daniel Guy, A.J.'s father. She is also survived by many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Preceding her in death were her grandparents David (Frances) Boyle and Bert (Betty) Martin of Alliance, Ohio. Robyn was first and foremost a loving, attentive mother to her baby son. Motherhood agreed with Robyn and she matured into a lovely woman. At age five she started swimming on the local team and her love of water began. She was an accomplished swimmer in high school and made it to the state competition in Illinois when we lived there. Much to her delight A.J. loves the water too. For the last 9 years Robyn has worked at the Chocolate Café Columbus with her sister Lisa. Lisa and Robyn were a team that could make the best looking food and the customers loved her. She was an integral part of their catering business, and Lisa's "right-hand man". Everyday we either saw Robyn or talked to her on the phone and said "love you." We know that she is along side her grandparents, aunts, and uncles and loving us from Heaven. Words can never convey our loss. Calling hours are Monday, December 26, 2016, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. The funeral will be Tuesday, December 27, 2016 at 11 a.m. at RUTHERFORD FUNERAL
