

Rocky R. Seabolt

May 29, 2012

Rocky R. Seabolt, 62, of Columbus, went into to the arms of his loving Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ, on May 29, 2012. He was born in Clendennin, West Virginia. He is preceded in death by his mother, Jean Jarvis; stepfather, Kenneth Jarvis; two brothers, Joe and Butch Seabolt, and his grandmother, Irene Hanson. Rocky is survived by his adoring wife Deborah Seabolt; two daughters, Roxanne and Sonie; son, Mike; stepson, Mike Edens; 7 grandchildren; three sisters, Ima Jean Gill, Kay DeLauder, Elizabeth Seabolt, extended family members (nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins), his in-law family and many friends. Rocky loved the Lord with all his heart and could be found reading & studying his Bible daily. He regularly attended church and was a devoted Christian who practiced what he believed in his daily life. His favorite Bible verse was John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." He was a devoted husband to Deborah, his wife of 17 years, a loving father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend to all who knew him. He enjoyed being outdoors where he'd fish and camp, or ride his bicycle. Rocky was much loved and will be missed greatly by all who knew and were touched by him. Special thanks to his aunt, Faye Lancaster, and friends, Ken, Paula & Jayden. Family and friends may call from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 6, 2012 at the RUTHERFORD-SHROYER FUNERAL HOME, 1278 West Broad Street, where a Memorial Service will be held at 8:00 p.m. All Is Well Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without affect, without the trace of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same that it ever was. There is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well.

“ There are not word to describe the loss of losing Rocky from this world. He impacted many lives with quiet, gentle manner and his mischievous , joking ways he had with all he came in contact with, I am sure. I did not get much time to spend around him when I came to Columbus but always felt a special bond with him because we shared our birthday. He will always hold a special place in my heart and memory of that special spirit he had. I know that God embraced you into His kingdom with open arms. I pray that God's arms comforts Debbie, our family and all the people you touched in this world, Rocky. The light in your eyes shined brightly always and you will always be remembered with so much love. May God bless those left behind with love, joy, and peace in knowing that you will be seen again in time. I send all my love to Debbie, Rocky's children, my family there in Columbus and throughout the world, and your friends. Wayne

“ Rocky you're a special light that has gone out of this world, but not our hearts. Although time and miles have separated us, there will always be that bond of love. Some lights are brighter than others and so their ending is harder to cope with, but we will always have the love and goodness they left behind. I hope that those who remember Rocky remember his light and will carry his light within them. May you all know the peace and love that he left this world with. May you be wrapped in the arms of joy and peace that he's now glowing in. I'll miss you Rocky, and so will so many more. God be with all the aching and hurting hearts who have lost your presence but not your love. God be especially with Deb, and hold her in his everlasting arms. Love your cousin, Tammie

“ Rocky, my cousin...although we had not spoken in many years, I can still remember being young and being around you. You were always trying to make people laugh..and you had a very infectious laugh yourself. I can remember how much you loved your family and knowing that there wasn't anything you wouldn't do for any of them. I can remember always feeling safe, knowing you were there. I never got to thank you for giving that sense of security to me...or for just being you. I'm so sorry for that. I pray that you are now safely in God's arms where the weight of the worldly issues you had in life are no longer a worry to you. I pray that you are again with your mother and that you both are so happy!! Debbie and family, may God be with all of you during such a difficult time in your lives...I pray God wraps His loving arms around you all and gives you the strength you need to get through this and go on with your lives. Remember, this is only for a short time that you are separated...you will see Rocky again, when its your time to be with God again. My heart and prayers are with each of you.
