“ I am saddened to learn of Roger's passing. During my time at Cleveland Heights High school we didn't always see eye to eye. In fact I would leave the choir in my senior year. But later during college, I would rekindle our relationship during the choir's tour of Washington DC where I was working. I was able to help the choir obtain a behind the scenes congressional experience and years later Roger would come to my aid in support of my daughter's musical tour to Ely, Cambridgeshire, England. It meant a great deal to me as Roger was the first to respond to my call for sponsors.

I am truly thankful to have gotten to work with and know Roger Clary. My sincere condolences to Patty and the entire family. May God hold Roger and all of you in the palm of his hand.

“ I was a choir Mom when my daughter, Melissa Newby (now Makael McDonald), was an alto in the Cleveland Heights Choir. I even acted as chaperone on a Spring Tour to Toronto, Ontario, Canada. What an amazing group! Thanks to the high standards of Roger Clary, I witnessed these goofy, rowdy, silly students become, in minutes, a group of professional, smooth, serious songsters. I was amazed. Roger was an awesome teacher And an inspirational leader as I could tell by the way the kids responded to/for him. As a previous choir singer (Lakewood OH), I understand that relationship. I am so sad to hear of Mr Clary's passing , and send blessings to his family and all who knew him.

“ To all of Roger's family, I send my deepest sympathies. I pray you all may find strength as you go through this terrible time.

I was a classmate of Roger's (always will be Mike to me) from second grade through high school. While we had not seen one another since graduation night, you cannot spend that length of time with Roger and not feel a permanent connection. We had enjoyed re-connecting on social media about six years ago and have laughed at some of the events that we had shared through the years.

Roger, may you find that your glorious voice never fades and that you rest in everlasting peace. The world is a lesser place without you, old friend.
