“ Dear Headlee Family, I just found out this morning that Roger passed on Thursday. I have been off work since last Wednesday. I just wanted all of you to know that Roger was one of the first people/staff to welcome me aboard 23 years ago when I started working for the City of Dublin in Parks and Rec. He was a kind and gentle man. Always a smile on his face and a kind word for all. He always liked to talk to me about my Cody boy cousins. He was good friends with Mike, Ted, Tom and Jerry. May Roger rest in Peace. He was a good man and a kind soul. In Sympathy, Barb Cody-Burkholder

“ I have many fond memories of hunting with Roger in Ohio. The best one was the year I sent him memorabilia from Urban Meyer and the Florida Gators, when they won the National Championship, beating Ohio State. Eddie Whitson relayed his response each time he received something. I have often wondered if he ever knew who sent all of that to him. It is a memory I will always cherish.

“ Dear Scott, Gail and family, It is with heavy heart that we let go of those we love; it is with joy that we remember the days that dad blessed your life; and it with thanks that we find the Lord's comfort in our tears. With Christian sympathy and prayers, Kathryn
