

Ronald J. Trick

February 15, 2009

Ronald J. Trick, 63, of Powell, OH passed away on Sunday, February 15, 2009 while enjoying one of his favorite pastimes, hiking the scenic Red River Gorge in KY. While his adventurous spirit will live on in the memories of family and friends, he will be greatly missed. Ron enjoyed the outdoors, especially wilderness hiking, canoeing and camping, and served as a volunteer for the Metro Parks of Central Ohio. He was born on April 23, 1945 to Edmund L. Trick and Roberta E. (Heckel) Trick in Dayton, OH. Ron graduated from Chaminade H.S. in Dayton, OH (1963) and received two degrees from Ohio State Univ., B of ARCH (1968) and M. of ARCH (1971). He practiced as an architect and building code consultant until his retirement in 2006. He was previously a principal with Wetherby, Goodman, Trick, AIA, and an associate with Trott & Bean Associates, AIA. He served on the Board of Directors of Ohio Design Professionals & Code Analysts, Central Ohio Code Officials Association, and Ohio Building Officials Association. Preceded in death by his father Edmund L. Trick; brothers John Kevin and Christopher A. Survived by his loving wife, Sheryl L. (Wiley) Trick; mother, Roberta E. Trick of Dayton; daughter, Natalie A. (Nick) Cenci and step-sons, Larry L. Marioth and Joseph E. Marioth, all of Columbus; brothers Timothy (Dorothy) Trick, Barry Trick (Terry Faust), Gerald (Connie) Trick, Douglas (Dolly) Trick, Steven Trick, Bertrand (Joy) Trick; grandchildren, Alexandra Cenci, Madeline Cenci; step-grandchildren, Karsen Marioth, Kennedi Marioth; and a host of nieces and nephews. “ I saw Ronald's poem on a bench in Glacier Ridge Metro Park. I googled his name and found this site. My thoughts are with your family. I lost my dad to cancer one year ago. He was 62. I was thinking about him when I was taking the walk that brought me to Ronald's lovely poem. I'm glad I saw it. My sincerest sympathies to his entire family.

“ Though it's been easily ten years since I last spoke with Ron, I always have and always will think of him when I recall my childhood, playing and laughing with his step-son, Joe in and around the house on Riverside Drive. He was stern but fair, allowing us to be as creative and crazy as we liked, just as long as we kept the noise to a minimum after midnight. As I grew older, I came to appreciate him more and more, and of all my friends' parents, I enjoyed spending time with him and Sherri the most, whether it was a family vacation or just hanging out in the kitchen. I'm saddened by his death, and wish I could be in Ohio to offer my support and condolences. Love, Andrew “ Sherrie, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am glad I got to see both of you at Diane's office during one of the Gallery Hops. It sounds as if Ron had an amazing life and an enjoyment for life. I know you will be strong and if I can do anything for you, please call me. God love you and your family.

“ Sherry and family. Words cannot convey how so very sorry we are for your loss. When we heard the terrible news we were in shock and still can't believe that Ron has gone except in your hearts. We, let alone you, had too little time with a good man. Please know that we are thinking of you.

“ Dear Sheryl, I was very sad when I heard the news at rehearsal tonight. I have you and your family in my prayers. I have beautiful memories of Ronald at our concerts. There are no words to describe the pain and suffering of the loss of someone so close, just find comfort in the beautiful memories that you share together. We are here for you. God bless you and your family.

“ To Natalie and family, I am shocked and saddened by the news of your dad's passing. When I read the paper yesterday, I just couldn't believe what I was reading. Even though its been quite a long time since I've seen you or your dad, I have fond memories of those childhood days spent at the Trick house in Willowick. Your dad was always friendly and kind to me and I'll remember him for that. My mother and brothers also pass along their condolences. Our thoughts are with you, God bless -your old friend, Terrence Moran
